

Introducing the Olivina Meyer Lemon Collection

A Fresh Scent that Captures the Essence of Sunshine

May 2009, Napa Valley, CA—The crack of a baseball bat, the tilt of a straw hat, the sun is shining, grapevines are in bloom. Summer is on its way! And to celebrate the arrival of this carefree season Olivina is launching the Meyer Lemon Collection, a line of rejuvenating beauty products infused with a fresh scent that perfectly captures the essence of sunshine.

Thought to be a cross between a regular lemon and a mandarin orange, the Meyer lemon is notably sweeter and less acidic than regular lemons. The fragrant fruit is grown widely throughout California and is a favorite among Napa Valley chefs.

But it wasn't only the Meyer lemon's local abundance that captured Olivina's founder, Susan Kenward, interest – the combination of lemon and mandarin orange results in a uniquely bright and subtly floral scent that is at once sweet and sharp. Add a warm honeysuckle base note, and the result is a light fragrance that is completely intoxicating and undeniably summer.

The Meyer Lemon Collection includes Bath Soap, Hand & Body Wash, Hand Crème, Hand & Body Lotion, Body Butter, and a Scented Candle. As with the entire Olivina line, the bath & body products are paraben-free and SLS free and are enriched with protective grapeseed oil and nourishing olive oil.

The Olivina Meyer Lemon Collection retails for $18-$40 and is available to purchase at olivinanapavalley.com.
